Terms for Adding Your First US Bank Card to a Digital Wallet

These Terms for Adding Your First US Bank Card to a Digital Wallet (the "Terms") apply when you choose to add a First US Bank debit card ("First US Bank Card") to a Digital Wallet ("Wallet"). In these Terms, "you" and "your" refer to the cardholder of the First US Bank Card, and "we," "us," "our," and "First US Bank" refer to the issuer of your First US Bank Card.

When you add a First US Bank Card to the Wallet, you agree to these Terms:

1. Adding Your First US Bank Card. You can add an eligible First US Bank Card to the Wallet by following the instructions of the Wallet provider. Only First US Bank Cards that we indicate are eligible can be added to the Wallet. If your First US Bank Card or underlying account is not in good standing, that First US Bank Card will not be eligible to enroll in the Wallet. When you add a First US Bank Card to the Wallet, the Wallet allows you to use the First US Bank Card to enter into transactions where the Wallet is accepted. The Wallet may not be accepted at all places where your First US Bank Card is accepted.

2. Your First US Bank Card Terms Do Not Change. The terms and account agreement that govern your First US Bank Card do not change when you add your First US Bank Card to the Wallet. The Wallet simply provides another way for you to make purchases with the First US Bank Card. Any applicable interest, fees, and charges that apply to your First US Bank Card will also apply when you use the Wallet to access your First US Bank Card. First US Bank does not charge you any additional fees for adding your First US Bank Card to the Wallet or using your First US Bank Card in the Wallet. The Wallet provider and other third parties such as wireless companies or data service providers may charge you fees.

3. First US Bank Is Not Responsible for the Wallet. First US Bank is not the provider of the Wallet, and we are not responsible for providing the Wallet service to you. We are only responsible for supplying information securely to the Wallet provider to allow usage of the First US Bank Card in the Wallet. We are not responsible for any failure of the Wallet or the inability to use the Wallet for any transaction. We are not responsible for the performance or non-performance of the Wallet provider or any other third parties regarding any agreement you enter into with the Wallet provider or associated third party relationships that may impact your use of the Wallet.

4. Contacting You Electronically and by Email. You consent to receive electronic communications and disclosures from us in connection with your First US Bank Card and the Wallet. You agree that we can contact you by email at any email address you provide to us in connection with any First US Bank account. It may include contact from companies working on our behalf to service your accounts. You agree to update your contact information with us when it changes.

5. Removing Your First US Bank Card from the Wallet. You should contact the Wallet provider on how to remove a First US Bank Card from the Wallet. We can also block a First US Bank Card in the Wallet at any time.

6. Governing Law and Disputes. These Terms are governed by federal law and, to the extent that state law applies, the laws of the state that apply to the agreement under which your First US Bank Card is covered. Disputes arising out of or relating to these Terms will be subject to any dispute resolution procedures in your First US Bank Card agreement.

7. Ending or Changing these Terms; Assignments. We can terminate these Terms at any time. We can also change these Terms, or add or delete any items in these Terms, at any time. We will provide notice if required by law. You cannot change these terms, but you can terminate these Terms at any time by removing all First US Bank Cards from the Wallet. You may not assign these Terms.

8. Privacy. Your privacy and the security of your information are important to us. U.S. Consumer Privacy Notice (located here: <https://www.firstusbank.com/>) applies to your use of your First US Bank Card in the Wallet. You agree that we may share your information with the Wallet provider, a payment network, and others in order to provide the services you have requested, to make information available to you about your First US Bank Card transactions, and to improve our ability to offer these services. This information helps us to add your First US Bank Card to the Wallet and to maintain the Wallet. We do not control the privacy and security of your information that may be held by the Wallet provider and that is governed by the privacy policy given to you by the Wallet provider.

9. Notices. We can provide notices to you concerning these Terms and your use of a First US Bank Card in the Wallet by posting the material on our website, through electronic notice given to any electronic mailbox we maintain for you or to any other email address or telephone number you provide to us, or by contacting you at the current address we have on file for you. You may contact us at: (334) 636-5424.

10. Questions. If you have any questions, disputes, or complaints about the Wallet, contact the Wallet provider using the information given to you by the provider. If your question, dispute, or complaint is about your First US Bank Card, then contact us at: (334) 636-5424.
